The Daily Gazetteer.

THURSDAY, MAY 8. 1740.

To the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

GIVE me Leave by your Paper to express my Share in the publick Satisfaction at seeing an Article of News in the Daily Advertiser, 'That 'upon a late Petition of the 'Tradesmen of Rosemary- 'lane to the Justices of the 'Tower Royalty, setting forth 'how much they are ob-structed in carrying on their Trades by the Crowds of People who resort thither every day, on pretence of buying and selling old Cloaths, the said Justices have agreed to meet in that Neighbourhood, to de-liberate on so great a Nuisance.'

As I often go that Way, I have abundant Reason to know that the Complaint of the Inhabitants is but too well founded; for the Numbers that flock thither under Colour of that Traffick, tho' the Business of many of 'em is to put off stollen Goods, not only ob-struct the Passage to the Tradesmens Shops, but even stop up the King's Highway, so that his Subjects can scarcely pass about their lawful Occasions, without ha-ving their Pockets pick'd, or being insulted by Mobs of Raggamuffins.

For these Reasons, I heartily wish the Inhabitants Success in their Petition; and hope the Gentlemen in the Commission of the Peace will unite their laudable Endeavours, and have the Honour and Satisfaction effectually to suppress a flagrant Nuisance which has so long been lamented by the Publick, and which was only wish'd, so far at least as the Jurisdiction of the City extends, by the late Lord Mayor Sir John Barnard. In so doing, I am sure they will have the Thanks of thousands besides,

SIR,

Your my House in Well-close-square, May 6. Your humble Servant, &c.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, May 1. We learn from the North, that the Synod of Angus and Mearns have lately deposed Mr. James Mitchel Minister of Glenisla from the holy Ministry, for his scandalous and immoral Life, and appointed the Presbytery of Miegle to make Intima-tion thereof against the second Sunday of May Inst. that none of the Ministers of the Presbytery come to obtemper this Appointment from the Pulpit of Glenisla Church, being under dreadful Apprehen-sions from Mr. Mitchel, who, as he goes about well-armed with a Posse, has vow'd that he will hold out the Garison to better Purpose than did the Spanish Governor that of Porto Bello. Letters are come up for Advice how to behave in this Case, and whether it may not be proper to make use of the Military in order to dislodge that Gentleman, left the Non-intima-tion of that Sentence might nullify the same.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Northampton, May 5. On the 26th ult. died at Lam-bourn in the County of Bucks, in the 72d Year of his Age, Edmund Dayrell, Gent. descended from the an-cient Cavalier Family of the Dayrells of that Place, formerly possess'd of a very good Estate in that Coun-ty. This Gentleman was bred an Attorney, and in-herited an Estate of about 500 l a Year; but his Fa-ther leaving some considerable Debts behind him, he voluntarily sold near 400 l. a Year to discharge the same. He practis'd in his Profession for some Years with the most consummate Abilities, directed by an almost unerring Judgment and the most unbias'd In-tegrity, being never known to be concern'd in any but a quick and amicable Means, and leaving the lat-ter to the meaner Spirits of that Profession. He re-tired from the practical Part of Business for near 30 Years; but it was impossible for such a well-known and well-distinguishing Largeness of Understanding and most inflexible Honesty to lie useless, for he be-came the Oracle of Law and Justice to the Country many Miles round, which he imparted gratis to all that came without Distinction, and decided what was referr'd to him, which was a great deal, with so much Candor and Equity, that even the Loser went away contented: And such was his steady Adherence to Justice in every Part of Life, that as he was above attempting to violate it in the most minute Circum-stance, so neither would he bear it from others, but always resolutely opposed it, and bore an irreclaim-able Abhorrence to the Author of any base Action, unless he reform'd, from the Right Hon. down to the meanest Peasant. To these invaluable Qualifications must be added an unaffected Plainness and Simplicity in Conversation, which was always blended and sweet-en'd with such a juvenile Alertness and Vivacity, that render'd even 70 odd not only agreeable but delight-ful, till within a few Days of his Death. He was a zealous Assertor of the Laws and Liberties of his Country, a strenuous Maintainer of the Welfare and Dignity of the Church of England; and what com-plered his Character was his diffusive Benevolence and extensive Charity in publick, but much more in pri-vate, to the Poor. 'Tis obvious to think, but not easy to tell, what irreparable Loss the whole Coun-try sustains by the Death of such a Gentleman, which was in part testified by the Crowd of Attendants in Tears at his Funeral. His real and personal Estate together amounts to the Value of about 9000 l. which, excepting some Legacies, he has left to a Nephew of the same Name, a worthy Tradesman in the City of London.

The Dealcastle Man of War, Capt. West, and the Fly Sloop of War, Capt. Smith, arrived the 3d of April last at Lisbon, in 15 Days from Portsmouth.

The following is the Wedding Anthem for the Princess Mary, as composed and set to Musick by Mr. Handell; viz.

Sing unto God the Kingdoms of the Earth.
O sing Praises unto the Lord.
Blessed are all they that fear the Lord.
O well is she and happy shalt thou be.
Blessed is the Man that has a virtuous Wife, for the Number of his Days shall be double.
A Good Wife is a Good Portion
Which shall be given in the Portion of them that fear the Lord.
Strength and Honour are her Cloathing, and she shall rejoice in Time to come.
She opens her Mouth with Wisdom, and in her Tongue is the Law of Kindness.
Lo thus shall the Man be blessed that feareth the Lord.
Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from Everlasting to Everlasting
And let all the People say Amen.
Praise the Lord Hallelujah.

A double Colonel's Guard is ordered to mount this Day at St. James's. Orders are likewise given for a Detachment of 40 Men out of each of the 4 Troops of Life-Guards, in order to keep off the Populace, none being to be admitted but Quality.

Yesterday the Six Malefactors mentioned in our List were executed at Tyburn.

John Hyde, for robbing William Austin on the Highway, went in a Mourning Coach to the Place of Execution.

They all behaved in a very decent and penitent Manner, and confessed the Facts for which they suf-fered.

There were a great Number of Butchers present to carry off the Body of Thomas Clements, the Butcher of Clare-Market.

Yesterday dy'd suddenly Mr. Page, one of the Can-didates for Bridge-master of this City: He had been disorder'd for some time, but his Death, 'tis thought, was haſten'd by being diſappointed of the Intereſt of ſome of his Acquaintance.

PARALYTICON, ſeu Anima Nervorum: A Stupendous Chymical Effence, which infallibly cures the PALSY, and all other NERVOUS DISEASES:

THE very firſt Doſe of it (a few Drops only) inſtantly penetrates the inmoſt Receſſes of the animal Nerves, and darting almoſt as quick as Lightning thro' the whole Human Syſtem, diffuſes kindly Warmth and genial Conſolation to the weaken'd Limbs, and all Parts of the Body, and affords immediate ſenſible Relief in the moſt obſtinate Palſy, and all Paralytick Affects, Shaking, Trembling, Numbneſs, Deadneſs, and Weakneſs, whether univerſal, or of particular Parts only, or whether lately contracted, or of many Years Continuance.

And as the very firſt Doſe makes an apparent demonſtrable Amendment, ſo the continuing of it for a ſhort Time as ſurely accomplishes a perfect Cure, not only of the moſt grievous Palſy or Relaxation of the Nerves, but alſo of their Cramp-like Contractions, Stiffneſs of the Sinews, and all other Nervous Complaints whatever, even that in Perſons of either Sex, or of any Age, and whether occaſioned by preceding Illneſſes, faſt Living, hard Drinking, long Courſes of Phyſick, great Colds, or exceſſive Fatigues either of Mind or Body.

Words cannot ſufficiently expreſs the uncommon, the unparallel'd Efficacy of this great Medicine, as all who take it frankly acknowledge; and its vaſtly ſuperior Excellency to all other Remedies, to be more ſecurely rely'd on, for the abſolute Cure of the Palſy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Indiſpoſitions, than the Celebrated Cortex is for Intermittens.

It rectifies all Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digeſtion, enriches the Blood, reſtores the natural Vigour and ſteady Uſe of the Limbs, and ſtrengthens the inſtrumental Joints, Muſcles, Tendons, Ligaments, and whole Habit to an immenſe Degree.

It is alſo very pleaſant to take, is comforting and cordial to the Stomach and Bowels, and for Safety might be given to the youngeſt Infant.

It is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment at Mr. Rand's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions large.
